

Xtorm presents the perfect Christmas gift

A powerful present everyone has a use for

Houten, The Netherlands, 14 November 2017 – Xtorm, manufacturer of mobile charging solutions, Xtorm has the solution for anyone looking for the perfect Christmas gift. Mobile devices such as phones, cameras and Bluetooth speakers have become indispensable but thanks to Xtorm they can be charged wherever and whenever necessary.

For smartphone addicts

Looking for a gift you know someone who cannot survive without their telephone, who is always busy WhatsApping, Snapchatting, pinning and tweeting? Social media addicts can always use some extra power! The compact Power Bank Pebble is ideal for everyday use and will easily fit into any trouser pocket or handbag.

For adventurers

Whether the adventurer's passion is cycling, hiking or camping in the wilderness, the Power Bank Limitless will provide enough power for all their outdoor adventures! What's more, this robust water and shock resistant Power Bank has a built-in torch with SOS function for real emergencies.

For workaholics

This handy gift allows workaholics to work anytime, anywhere, without having to rely on the availability of a wall socket. The Power Bank Discover has enough power to charge a MacBook, smartphone and work smartphone simultaneously!

For (Christmas) tree huggers

Xtorm has an ideal charging solution for people who prefer to use as little electricity as possible. The Lava 2 Solar Charger has built-in solar panels. As the name suggests, this stylishly handy Solar Charger charges mobile devices using sunlight.

Thanks to the extensive range, Xtorm has the ultimate Christmas gift for everyone!
